

Peer Review Self Assessment Form¹
Protective Factor: Link Families to Services and Opportunities

Likert scale ranges from 1 (Poor) to 5 (Excellent)

1) The program develops family plans with parents that:	1	2	3	4	5	Not Applicable	Comments/ Examples
a) Identify their interests, skills, needs, and goals for themselves and their children
b) Identify services and opportunities within the program that may help them achieve their goals and use their skills and talents
c) Identify other community resources and opportunities that may help them achieve their goals, continue their learning, and/or provide other avenues for their involvement
d) Are regularly revised and updated in conjunction with families
e) Other:

Likert scale ranges from 1 (Poor) to 5 (Excellent)

2) Staff and parents have access to up-to-date information about services that are available in the community that includes hours of business, fees, location, eligibility, language capacity, etc.	1	2	3	4	5	Not Applicable	Comments/ Examples

Likert scale ranges from 1 (Poor) to 5 (Excellent)

3) When staff make referrals to outside services, they:	1	2	3	4	5	Not Applicable	Comments/ Examples
a) Brainstorm with families about what resources would be helpful
b) Help parents address barriers to utilizing services, such as lack of transportation or childcare, language difficulties, or fees
c) Follow up with families to see if they used the referral and ensure that they were satisfied with the services they received
d) Try to make a personal connection between families and service providers

¹ Self assessment form taken from The Center for the Study of Social Policy's Strengthening Families Self-Assessment form. www.cssp.org

Protective Factor: Link Families to Services and Opportunities (continued)

Likert scale ranges from 1 (Poor) to 5 (Excellent)

4) The program actively builds collaborative links with other service providers in order to:	1	2	3	4	5	Not Applicable	Comments/ Examples
a) Bring other services on site when possible
b) Ease the referral process by ensuring the workers in different programs work together
c) Share information with parents about resources
d) Identify and fill gaps

Likert scale ranges from 1 (Poor) to 5 (Excellent)

	1	2	3	4	5	Not Applicable	Comments/ Examples
5) The program encourages parents to share information about community resources for families-such as toy exchanges, resale shops, play lots, family activities, and more formal services

Notes: